27th August, 1990.

Dear Mr Mortimer,

I am writing to request permission to film one scene from the mini-series "Brides of Christ" at Centennial Park on the afternoon of Thursday 11th October, 1990.

"Brides of Christ" is being co-produced by the ABC and Roadshow, Coote & Carroll. This six hour series tells the story of Catherine, Paul and Ambrose. They are nuns. Rosemary, Frances and Brigid are their students. The tales of "Brides of Christ" provides an affecting encounter with an unforgettable group of women. The cast features Brenda Fricker and Sandy Gore and the series is to be directed by Ken Cameron, whose credits include "The Umbrella Woman" and "Bangkok Hilton".

The scene involves one nun being met by another with an umbrella in the rain. The director has found an ideal location in a cluster of trees on the left of Grand Drive, just before Dickens Drive, as indicated on the map enclosed.

As we can not be sure of rain on the day, although it being Sydney, it's a definite possibility, we will require a Special Effects truck and a water truck. Is there a fire hydrant in the area where we propose to film?

On that day we will be filming at the Randwick Ritz Cinema in the morning so we would not arrive at the Park until 1:00pm approximately. The scene should not take more than three hours to complete. We will depart by 5:00pm at the very latest.
